GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

GEORGETOWN, June 4-12 m. The Building Association held their regular monthly meeting last night, but owing to the rain the company was small, and the bidders less numerous than usual. The stock went off at 35 to 38 cents premium.

Quick & Co.'s menagerie left this morning for Alexandria. The exhibitions of yesterday afternoon and night were well attended, and the performances gave general satisfaction.

Capt. Orme, of the night-watch, arrested last night Manuel Price (negro) under suspicious circumstances, he being found at an unseasonable hour with a sack upon his shoulder, containing a number of fine chickens, which had just been killed. The captain caged him until this morning. Yesterday, while a-little child of Mr. P. L. Rodier was playing near the landing of a flight of stairs, leading to the basement of his dwelling, it fell to the bottom. Its head was so much injured by the fall, that for some time it was thought that life was extinct. Dr. Bohrer was promptly in attendance, and I understand this morning that it is considered out of danger.

Another accident happened yesterday afteroon to a boy while driving one of the carts at the cemetery. In driving down a steep hill he fell off the cart, and one of the wheels passed over him, injuring one of his arms and portion of his body.

The last foreign news has increased confi dence among the holders of flour, and the market this morning is firm at $4.12, with more buyers than sellers. There was yesterday afteroon a sale of 2,700 bushels of prime wheat at 92c., and one of 1,500 do. white corn at 60c.; both sales to the Columbia Mills. Oats, struck measure, 42c.

Passengers going to Washington by the train of 10 p.m. are taken, if they desire to do so.) with their through tickels, for a few days, at the following places, ris: Washington, Richmond, and Petersburg, by which passengers and their bagagae are conveyed between the depots in those places, free of all expense.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: 1 have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Beactwoop's Edishburder Magazing.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the lat-revolutions and counter-revolutions among the na done of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the teading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjichted, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusion drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British stoamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.
